A Pictorial Tour

Worlds of Fun®

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

Nestled among 153 acres of wooded hills, Worlds of Fun® is the fun-for-everyone place. Guests embark upon a day-long adventure by crossing the gangplank of the S.S. Henrietta, Jules Verne's steamship from "Around the World in Eighty Days." Very soon you will travel to the ...

Cotton Blossom, the legendary stern-wheeler originally constructed for the filming of the movie classic "Showboat." Walk the gangplank, and you're on your way to ...

The Orient, home of the world's largest steel roller coaster, the Orient Express. Over 3,400 feet of twisting terror await the adventurous spirit. Once you've experienced the ultimate coaster thrill, you're ready for the dizzying tentacles of the Oriental Octopus or the fun-filled antics of the Fins and Flippers dolphin show. Now, on your way to ...

Scandinavia, where you can relax while the children play at Humpty's Haven Ride the Schussboomer, shop the Baltic Bazaar, and follow the applause to the Tivoli Music Hall. Next is an exciting ride through the Norwegian fjords of the Viking Voyager. Then it's under the train trestle, and you're off to ...

Africa, home of the shouts, screams, and excitement of the Zambezi Zinger and the Zulu. Wander through the Diamond Mine, and you're on your way to ...

Europea, where the traditional glamour of the Continent awaits you. Hail an antique French taxi or take a spin on the Flying Dutchman. Enjoy the Moulin Rouge show or the periodic performances of top name entertainers at the Forum Amphitheatre.

Your next stop is Americana, home of the Bicentennial Square and the white-knuckle thrills of the Screamer. After your ride, play Skee-ball or test your skill at Calamity Games. Browse through old-time shops, walk the lively streets and be sure to stop by Union Depot and ride the Eli, Worlds of Fun® Steam Train. Don't forget the Aerodrome section, where you can ride the Barnstormer and attend the Flying Circus Puppet Pavilion.

The fun and excitement of our many rides, shows, attractions, and our constant striving for excellence are the reasons why Worlds of Fun® remains one of the finest theme parks in America.
