THERE'S LOTS THAT'S NEW AT Worlds of Fun

The 1983 park-wide expansion includes the largest show program ever in the park's eleven-year history. Highlighting the 1983 expansion is the new Starbeam Music Machine, an ultimate voyage through the sights and sounds of rock and roll.

Projected on a 60-foot tri-screen, the Starbeam Music Machine encompasses 25 years of contemporary music from the 50's to the 80's, combining over 2,400 visual images and segments of more than 200 memorable hit songs.

In addition to the Starbeam Music Machine, Worlds of Fun will be the official home of an exciting new costumed character family, the Shirt Tales. These lovable Saturday morning television favorites have settled into their permanent Kansas City home at Worlds of Fun's Tree House Hollow.

"The Great Fiasco's Wondrous Workshop" transforms the 500-seat Moulin Rouge from a European bistro into a marionette maker's workshop.

Along with the expanded show program, Worlds of Fun has added several new restaurants, shops and games. If you are a cookie monster, the Cookie Jar is just for you, featuring freshly-baked cookies and soft drinks. Treats'n Sweets presents flavored popcorn of all kinds and ice cream sodas. The Smor-B-Que menu serves smoked bar-b-que ribs and fried chicken. Complementing the restaurants are new merchandise shops: the Lolli Palooza, offering traditional hard candies, lollipops, gifts and accessories; Tangler's Tees and Toppers, specializing in T-shirts and hats; and K.C.'s Corner, offering Kansas City-themed gift and souvenir items. New game additions include Yankee Clipper, a unique new ship-race game that challenges guest crews' navigation abilities; Bowler Roller-Rama, a game testing skills with a bowling ball; and the Bullpen, the home of radar baseball.
