

Beginning Memorial Day weekend, visit Worlds of Fun's newest addition, Berenstain Bear Country, a life-size setting from the pages of the best-selling children's books. Located next to Pandamonium, Berenstain Bear Country will cover close to one acre with play areas and interactive attractions for children under 54" tall. Youngsters will enjoy their favorite Berenstain Bear™ stories among replicas of the "Spooky Old Tree," and the "Bear Family Treehouse." Plus, kids can learn about electricity and gravity in the Bear Museum, or dig for fossils in the dinosaur pit. Kids and parents will love this exciting and educational area while Papa, Mama, Brother and Sister bear bring the storybook setting to life.
