What the World Needs Now Is...

Nothing says
pure excitement like a large, ill-tempered
African snake.

So this year, come to Worlds of Fun for the debut of MAMBA, a roller coaster that's bigger than life. Not to mention the Statue of Liberty and Mount Rushmore. Named after one of Africa's most feared snakes, MAMBA is one of the world's tallest, longest, fastest and scariest coasters. Over a mile long, it has not one, but two monstrous hills. You'll drop 205 feet, hit speeds of 75 mph and pull 3.5 Gs.

So hold on to your hats and your stomachs. Be among the first to ride MAMBA this summer. It will leave you speechless. Because, well, three minutes of screaming your lungs out has a tendency to do that.

What the World Needs Now Is 175 acres of attractions

Stretched across 175 acres are thrills, excitement and just good plain fun. The megacoaster MAMBA will tempt the ultimate scream seeker, and Worlds of Fun is filled with a variety of rides sure to satisfy any appetite for fun.

Detonator and RipCord® a Skycoaster® experience, are two towering thrillers that take fun to new heights. Those who prefer to stay closer to the ground can choose from a number of spinning and twisting favorites located throughout the park. If you like to loop, lift and turn, there's nothing quite like the Orient Express, or feed your need for speed on a top-ranked wooden roller coaster, Timber Wolf.

Extra charge attraction*

And little ones will enjoy Kiddy Kingdom, a collection of rides just their size, or the Wacky Worm roller coaster, the baby brother to MAMBA.
